CRISIS IN MEXICO IS NEAR AT HAND

United States Troops Are Being Rushed to the Border to Protect Americans

WASHINGTON, Feb. 6.—Another uprising in Mexico is imminent, according to official dispatches received here, which cast grave doubts on the loyalty of General Orozco to President Madero, and intimate that in withdrawing from Juárez with the garrison of that place to Chihuahua, Orozco is about to begin a new rebellion and declare the independence of the State of Chihuahua. Army circles are again agitated and preparations for immediate action are renewed.

PENSACOLA, Fla., Feb. 6.—For the second time within twelve months two companies of the coast artillery stationed at Fort Barrancas received orders today to entrain for the Mexican border in Texas. Four other companies stationed here are being recruited to the full war strength in anticipation of possible orders to move on short notice.

The Fort Barrancas troops will entrain for Texas tomorrow morning. They will depart in full war strength. The garrison at Ft. Morgan, Mobile, and at Fort Moultrie, Charleston, are in readiness for Texas duty.

State of Chihuahua Seethes With Revolt

EL PASO, Feb. 6.—A Chihuahuense special to the Herald says the guards at the state penitentiary have deserted their posts and have jailed the director, Rafael Remond, after which they took to the hills to join Juárez. Government officials in Chihuahua say that the Madero regime is dead and that the state government is ready to be turned over to Emilio Vásquez Gómez. The whole state of Chihuahua is now reported to be in revolt against the Madero government. The state assembly is expected to meet today.

British Ill-Feeling Against Germany Again Breaks Out

LONDON, Feb. 6.—There is a rising tide of anger throughout England over the sentence to three and a half years confinement in a fortress passed by the German Imperial court at Leipzig upon Bertram Stewart, a leading London lawyer, on a charge of espionage.

The feeling has reached such a height that there is a possibility the incident will prove embarrassing to Anglo-German friendship. The fact cannot be overlooked that newspapers representing both the great political parties of Great Britain are clamoring for government action in Stewart's behalf. The matter will be brought up in the house of commons as soon as parliament meets unless something should be done by the government in the meantime.

The press has been inflamed by the affair because the trial took place mostly in secret.

The only witness against Stewart was a German who was reputed to be a spy, and not known to have served terms in prison. The theory here is that the Belgian entrapped Stewart for the purpose of getting paid for turning informer.

The Pall Mall Gazette today makes a passionate appeal to the British public never to rest until justice has been done. Other papers contrast the trial of Stewart with the open procedure of the English courts of justice against a German charged with a similar offence.

Timothy Held on Charge Of Murdering J. J. Moore

SAN MATEO, Feb. 6.—S. R. Timothy, the chauffeur who shot and killed John J. Moore, a San Francisco capitalist, January 27, was held to answer today in the police court on a charge of murder. Five witnesses were examined but no testimony was brought out throwing any light on the question of whether Mrs. Moore had been riding with Timothy when Moore was shot.

Mrs. Behrman, Mrs. Moore's maid, repeated her story of having run from the house when she heard the shots fired and of having seen Moore leaning against Timothy's automobile. She was not questioned regarding Moore's declaration that Mrs. Moore had been riding with the chauffeur.

ROME, Feb. 6.—The return of General Caneva, commander-in-chief of the Italian expeditionary force to Tripoli, who arrived here today, is said to be due to a meeting with his party planned with the aim of attaining his object with the least sacrifice of men.

COUNCIL TO FIX THE RATES

Notice Served by City on the Water, Light and Power Corporations

Telephone Question Referred to the Municipality Attorney for Opinion

Working under power created by the new charter, the city council initiated legislation this morning looking toward the fixing of rates for public service by corporations, not only for water, but for all other services. This will affect rates for light, heat, power, telephone and telegraph service.

The first move in this movement was made by Mayor Frank K. Mott in the form of two resolutions introduced this morning and passed by the city council, requiring the various public service corporations doing business within the city of Oakland to file with the council sworn statements giving full statistics as to receipts and expenditures, cost of maintenance and other details necessary to the council's information on which to base rates charged to consumers for the coming fiscal year.

POWER GIVEN BY CHARTER.

The new city charter gives the council the right to prescribe and regulate rates, fares, rentals or charges made for services rendered the public under all grants of privileges. This right is now to be invoked in regard to the light, power and heat companies.

The rate-fixing power of the council must be exercised in accordance with a charter provision requiring that the rates shall not be fixed by the council at lower price or rate than will produce a net revenue to the grantee or less than 5 per centum per annum, computed on the actual cost of construction of the plant and property actually used and employed in the transaction of business."

That this requirement may be adhered to the charter provides for the meeting with the council of sufficient information and data upon which to base the rate-fixing. It is to this end that Mayor Mott introduced the resolutions serving notice upon the various corporations that the council will this month commence the consideration of the question of fixing the rates for various classes of public service.

STATEMENTS BY CORPORATIONS.

The statements sworn to by officials of the various companies must be filed with the city council by February 26, of this year, as the rate-fixing matter must be undertaken by the council this month. The rates must be fixed before the end of June.

In the past the council has concerned itself with fixing rates only for water, but the legislation inflation this morning is preliminary to the fixing of rates charged by the Pacific Gas & Electric company, the Great Western Power company, and the Central Oakland Light and Power company and others of similar nature.

The resolution directed toward the telephone and telegraph companies was passed by the council and referred to City Attorney Ben F. Wooster, as it is not assured that the council has the same jurisdiction in these cases. The city attorney will pass upon these cases.

"This resolution prescribes for the fixing of rates effective February 26," said Mayor Mott, in introducing the resolutions this morning. "I placed the date as late as possible to give the corporations the fullest opportunity to determine the date."

"The rate-fixing will be undertaken by the council with great care, and everything will be done to carry out the work in the interests of the people and with full justice to the business involved."

RESOLUTIONS ADOPTED.

The resolutions were passed unanimously as follows:

Resolved, That the Pacific Gas and Electric Company, Great Western Power Company and Central Oakland Light and Power Company, and all other persons, companies or corporations supplying heat, light or power to this city, or to the inhabitants thereof, be and they hereby required to furnish this Council on or before February 26, 1912, a detailed statement showing what amount of money is to be paid by each person, company or corporation, for the services or favors given, all costs of the same, and the amount of the business of each individual company.

First.—Detailed statement showing what amount of money is to be paid by each person, company or corporation, for the services or favors given, all costs of the same, and the amount of the business of each individual company.

Second.—An itemized statement showing what amount of money is to be paid by each person, company or corporation, for the services or favors given, all costs of the same, and the amount of the business of each individual company.

MOORE KEEPS WEDDING SECRET WEDS FAIR SAN JOSE GIRL HERE

MRS. JEFFERSON MCLEOD MOORE and her husband. The couple were married here in November.

'I JUST DID IT,
THAT'S ALL,'
HE SAYS

News of Marriage in November Is Just Made Known

SAN FRANCISCO, Feb. 6.—Discord and dissension marked the course of John J. Moore's marital journey and tragedy marked his close.

But that old note to Moore's son and only child, Jefferson McLeod Moore, that he should not attempt the way in which his father has struggled and failed.

Early last November, just after J. J. Moore's domestic difficulties had been publicly given by reason of his wife's divorce suit, young Jefferson Moore went to Oakland and was secretly married to Bertha Schneiders, a comely girl whose home was in San Jose.

Without taking anyone into their confidence the young people procured an Alameda county marriage license, and then took a quiet little run into East Oakland where they were married by the Rev. H. K. Sanborne, pastor of the Brooklyn Presbyterian church.

"The burden of Gompers' testimony was intended to show that he had not violated the restraining order at that time. He told how, as soon as the Buck company had fled a home for its infestation growing out of the Buck store and range house case, against himself, John Mitchell and Secretary Frank Morrison.

He told how, as soon as the Buck company had fled a home for its infestation growing out of the Buck store and range house case, against himself, John Mitchell and Secretary Frank Morrison.

No relatives or friends were there to witness the wedding. It was a romantic event that had been secretly planned, and Moore and his bride evidently did not intend to spoil the fun of the last minute.

Young Moore has suddenly been weighed with the whole responsibility of his father's involved affairs.

It is most difficult to see how he can afford to support himself, but by his conduct of the business of a high romance has shown that he has at the time of his arrest and he had attempted to shoot Moore in the leg.

GIVE THE CHILD A CHANCE

During childhood is laid the foundation for a strong healthy body which will stand the trials and vicissitudes of manhood and womanhood, or a weak one which will handicap the individual throughout his entire life. It is undoubtedly true that inheritance plays some part in this, but by care and attention detrimental inherited factors may be overcome.

The osteopathic profession has made great strides toward rectifying detrimental inherited conditions and believes and teaches that as a basis for a sound and perfect body, every organ should be in its proper place and have a perfectly free and unobstructed blood and nerve supply.

As the nerves which govern the function, growth and even the blood supply of all the organs pass between the vertebrae, it is easily seen that a slight curvature or a straightening of the normal curves of the spine may encroach on these nerves, thus making the parts they supply more subject to disease at the present or future time.

The flat chest, drooping shoulders, sloping ribs, and straightened spine of the typical chest of tuberculosis of the lungs, may in childhood, while the bones are comparatively soft and easily molded, be changed to a normal chest, giving the lungs more room to expand and thus may be changed a great factor which pre-disposes toward consumption.

Give your child a fair chance in life by taking him to an osteopathic physician and have all abnormalities corrected as a sound and perfect body is the greatest factor in his race for success.

EDWIN HAWLEY'S WILL IS NOT TO BE FOUND

NEW YORK, Feb. 6.—Although it is understood that an estate of approximately $40,000,000, is to be distributed, it is now known that the will of the late Edwin Hawley cannot be found. His private papers have been partly searched, but so far the document has not been discovered. Until it is found the distribution of the estate, which includes a large railroad interest, will remain in doubt. He made the will in 1908, naming his executor his partner, Frank H. Davis.

SO BLOATED CAN HARDLY BREATH, MY GLUTIES FEEL TOO TIGHT

Many people say, and all from Gas in their stomach and bowels. Have you ever tried PAULMANN'S GAS TABLETS? (Made especially for Gas in your stomach and bowels). If not, do it. You cannot imagine how permanently (forever) they will do away with every sign of Gas.

There were two explosions in 1905; nine in 1906; six in 1907; twenty-six in 1908; twenty in 1909; twenty-five in 1910, and thirteen in 1911. These figures are exclusive of the explosion which wrecked the Los Angeles bridge, and resulted in the confessions and imprisonment of the brothers John J. and James B. McNamara. John J. McNamara was secretary-treasurer of the International Association of Bridge and Structural Iron Workers.

The states in which explosions occurred were Ohio, Indiana, Illinois, Pennsylvania, New York, New Jersey, Maryland, Connecticut, Massachusetts, Michigan, Wisconsin, Missouri, Iowa, Nebraska, Utah, California, and Washington. Ohio, with twenty explosions, had more than any one state. Illinois, Indiana and New York followed in order, in respect of the number of the explosions.

and men who took charge of him when he arrived at Peoria, Ill., to blow up places there.

CHICAGOAN INDICTED.

Another indictment is said to deal with a Chicago man who, after McManigal partly wrecked by dynamite an iron works plant in South Chicago in February, 1911, handed him an envelope containing $165 with the remark:

"There's money in that."

The charge of concealment of knowledge of the guilt of others is said to have been brought to bear in connection with the $1000 allowed monthly to J. J. McNamara as secretary of the International Association of Bridge and Structural Iron Workers for which he was requested to give an accounting.

As indicating the wide scope of the jury's six weeks' inquiry into the ramifications of the hundred or more explosions, which were directed against "open shop" contractors in the last four or five years and explosions in which the McNamara brothers and Ortie McManigal are said to have been implicated, it was said action after the jury's report might be expected in the following cities:

Boston, New York, Brooklyn, Philadelphia, Buffalo, Pittsburgh, Cleveland, Detroit, Indianapolis, Chicago, Milwaukee, Peoria, Cincinnati, St. Louis, New Orleans, Kansas City, Salt Lake City, San Francisco, Los Angeles and Seattle.

Tveitmo Case Postponed Till July, to Be Set

LOS ANGELES, Feb. 6.—Because of the crowded condition of the calendar in the present term in the federal district court the trials of Olaf A. Tveitmo, Anton Johannsen and E. A. Clancy of San Francisco and J. E. Munsey of Salt Lake City, the labor leaders indicted for conspiracy to transport dynamite, went over until July.

Judge Olin Wellborn announced he would wait until July 8 before fixing the date of the trials.

Attorney Lecompte Davis, one of counsel for the defense, said his clients were anxious for early trials, but would have to wait, as United States Attorney A. I. McCormick had declared it was impossible for the cases to be heard during the present term because of the large number of criminal cases preceding those of the indicted labor leaders.

REJOICE OVER
KING'S SAFETY

Special Thanksgiving Service for Returned Monarch is Held at St Paul's.

LONDON, Feb. 6.—A national thanksgiving service to commemorate the safe return of King George and Queen Mary from India was held today in St Paul's cathedral.

Their majesties, with the Prince of Wales and Princess Mary, the Queen Mother, Alexandra, and other members of the royal family, drove to St Paul's through a chilly drizzling fog and deep slush. Nevertheless, immense crowds stood along the streets and cheered the procession which consisted of five carriages and an escort of household cavalry, as it passed slowly toward the city.

The archbishops of Canterbury and York and 13 bishops and many other clergy received the king and queen on the steps of the cathedral. A procession was then formed which marched down the center aisle to the altar.

There were more than 5000 persons in the congregation. The service consisted of the national anthem, Te Deum, five prayers of general thanks-giving and the Hallelujah chorus.

Then came a short address by the archbishop of Canterbury, after which all stood and sang with him "Now Thank We All Our God."

The Westminster city council presented an address of welcome to the king and queen in Tricolor square, while the city of London dignitaries met their majesties at Temple Bar with the ancient ceremony of presenting to the king the city's pearl sword.

Only a narrow shelf of the flooring of the room remained, upon this was the burned trunk with the valuables in its ashes.

WALLINGFORD AND BLACKIE CREATE GREAT RIOT OF JOY

3. RUFUS WALLINGFORD and FANNY JASPER in the comedy triumph, "Get Rich Quick Wallingford"

(BY LEO LEVY)

VOICEROUS proof that J. Rufus Wallingford has attained national prominence was delivered in a neat package last evening when a crowd turned out to witness the antics of Get-Rich-Quick and Blackie Daw at the Macdonough theater. The last time Oakland grew excited over the presence of a national character was at the time "A Fool There Was" visited.

"Get-Rich-Quick" Wallingford is a riot of joy. By the time that Wallingford had melted the suspicions of the board of directors of the Universal Covered Carpet Tack company and remoulded them into tears, you don't care what happens. Tell with the Cohan-Chester controversy and the Bacon-Shakespeare dispute; likewise the high cost of living and the fact that the play is piffle, forget your morning-after headache and relegate the idea that George M. Cohan has cheapened patriotism. In fact, neither the tariff nor the coming election has anything to do with Wallingford. We start likewise in connection with the depot at Blackfoot and told the station agent that someone had tampered with a switch in the yards. The station agent found the switch as West described it and threw it back into position in time to keep a passenger train from being derailed. Officers who investigated the matter turned their attention to West and, after vigorous questioning today, the man admitted that the officials say, that he had thrown the switch in order to save the honor of saving the train.

CURTAIN OVER TROUBLES.
In fact, here is a play written for the purpose of dropping a curtain over your troubles. It succeeds beyond the wildest dreams of George Wallingford Cohan. With faults it crammed. Types were twisted into Cohan caricatures and situations are drawn out to the bitter end of the ridiculous. There is a fourth act that serves merely for the introduction of a auto electric car and an ultra violet stage setting.

But do we care for all that? Not so. For there is a brass band and skyrocket action, a hundred laughs and hushed sentimentality, two clever crooks and a "bunch of boozes" and the street car. What more is there to cheer you on your way, brother?

You've heard the story of J. Rufus and his trusty Lieutenant, Horace (Blackie) Daw. Arriving in a town of Pittsburg where he made a hotel clerk with $1,000, a coal and ice dealer with $45,000 and several other substantial citizens, passengers and not malefactors of greater wealth—arriving in this money-laden town, Wallingford and Blackie proceed to promote their dreams and puncture the "boobs" pocketbook.

COVERED CARPET TACKS.
They organize the Universal Covered Carpet Tack company with J. Rufus and Blackie Daw, loan methods of the gamblers succeed so well in advertising Pittsburg that crowds flock thereto, real estate prices go up and up until the inventors sell a traction franchise for a million—stage wealth.

The element of love enters into the heart of these clever schemers, and just as they are prepared to decamp with a quarter of a million of local capital they find their affections closely bound to two good young women, whose lives they do not wish to sulley with their shady past.

In an ingenious way, however, the visit of a friend of Wallingford intended only as a trap for the unwary natives, hatch out, boyed his wildest dreams, and quite involuntarily Wallingford and Daw find themselves legitimately wealthy men. The close of the play leaves the two former crooks honest and happy, a credit to the flourishing town; their energy has established.

THRUST UPON THEM.

Wallingford and Blackie have been thrust upon them. By accident they fail to legitimate it, and the result of an illustrious adventure. All thereupon are they enabled to make good what they have stolen and become two of Pittsburg's most honored citizens. His love for Fanny Jasper, a stenographer, is strong, but not strong enough to start Wallingford on the straight and narrow. In fact, he is about to decamp with the "boobs" money when the heavens open and literally pour gold into his lap. His reform is financed by J. Rufus, the man for his reformation, not to face the music. He's a runt sort of a hero.

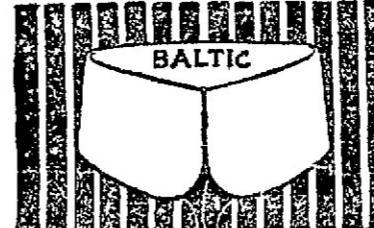

John Webster's J. Rufus is a spry individual with a whimsical comic air, the methods of times of hustlers. He is a color character with Yankee tendencies rather than the smooth gentleman of the magazine stories. But Webster runs him up with a brass bottle and limb. The play opens at 11:30 Broadway, 100 feet off the Old Drury Stage of the Fox. Box office occupied by J. Rufus and Fannie. Phone Oakland 8834.

SAYS HONOR SYSTEM IN COLLEGE LOWERS MORALS

PHILADELPHIA, Feb. 6.—Prof. Felix E. Shelding, head of the English department in the University of Pennsylvania, believes that the honor system as applied at the university lowers the moral standards of the students, and that the system is a failure.

In a statement published in one of the student periodicals Prof. Shelding says:

"To ask a man to promise not to cheat is to assume not only the possibility but the probability that he will cheat, and therefore destroy his reputation for honor. A gentleman is always on the honor and to assist the conduct of a college life, it is to lower the whole standard of his moral system."

PETER FUGEL SEEKS TO MANDAMUS. OAKLAND

In mandamus proceedings begun late yesterday in the Superior Court, Peter Fugel charged that his rights as a citizen under the Constitution of the United States and by the Constitution of the State of California have been trespassed by the city of Oakland's refusal to give him a license to lay a cement walk in Fourteenth Avenue between Twenty-eighth and Twenty-ninth Streets. Fugel said, forth that the municipal ordinance calling for a deposit of $200 on receipt of the license the money to be forfeited if the walk breaks in twelve months or the job is not completed in that length of time, is not constitutional. He refused to put up the deposit with Superintendent of Streets Ferry F. Brown when he applied for a license and the permit was denied. Fugel then took the court to compel the city to give him the license for the work he contemplates.

Dr. Evans, ex-commissioner of health, says: "There is almost no relation between skin diseases and the climate. The skin must be cured through the air. The germs must be destroyed and so natives of the tropics have been found worth less. The most advanced physicians of this country are now agreed on this, and are prescribing a wash of wintergreen, thymol and other ingredients for eczema and all other skin diseases. This compound is known as D. D. D. Prescription for Eczema. Dr. Holmes, the well known skin specialist writes: "I am convinced that the D. D. D. Prescription is as much a specific for eczema as any other drug. It has been prescribed the D. D. D. remedy for years. It will take away the itch the instant you apply it."

In fact, we are so sure of what D. D. D. will do for you that we will be glad to let you have a $1 bottle of our favorite cream for nothing unless we see that it does the work.

STANDARD OIL CO.
IS TO CUT MELON

Indiana Subsidiary Plans to Disburse 2900 Per Cent Stock Dividend.

NEW YORK, Feb 6—Preparations are being made whereby next month division of $29,000,000 in stock of the Standard Oil company of Indiana will be made. The company is one of the former thirty-three subsidiaries of the Standard Oil company of New Jersey. The annual meeting of the Indiana company will be held on March 7, at Whiting, Indiana, and stockholders will be asked, it is said, to vote an increase of $29,000,000 in the company's capital which it at present $1,000,000. The additional $29,000,000 will be then turned over to the stockholders, it is generally reported, as a stock dividend of 2900 per cent.

Shortly after the dissolution of the Standard Oil company, of N. J., shares in the Indiana company sold as low as $150 and yesterday the shares were quoted at $400 bid and $450 asked.

The woman, clad on in the abbreviated costume of a native dancer, was found on the street by Policeman Cowhig, and as she was unable to give account of herself she was taken to a hospital. She wore tights and some ornamental straw and was shivering with the cold when the patrolman came upon her.

It was the Standard Oil company of Indiana that in 1907 was fined $29,000,000 by Judge Landis of Illinois. Judge Landis was reversed by the court of appeals, however.

Antonio Maggiore Declares He Was Not Kidnapped; Spent All Savings.

CHICAGO, Feb 6—Antonio Maggiore, Jr., 18 years old, for whom the police have been searching since January 23 on the suspicion that he had been kidnapped, appeared at his home in the North Side Italian colony today. His father took him to a jail, where the boy told the police he left home of his own volition and never had been in the hands of kidnappers.

"When I left home I had my savings," he told the police. "I spent some of this and then I was afraid to go home. I feared my parents would not approve of the way I had spent the money."

DECLARER GUNNERY IN NAVY IS IMPROVING

NEW YORK, Feb 6—Rear Admiral Charles D. Sigsbee, U. S. A., returned, in an address before the women's welfare department of the National Civic Association, declared that the gunnery of the navy is 1200 times more efficient than during the Spanish-American war. He read gunnery figures to show that the percentage of hits had increased from 33 1-3 to 33 1-2 and the range had increased from one mile and a half to six miles. He also made a plea for an increase in the size and number of United States warships.

TAKEN TO NEW YORK

ATLANTA, Ga., Feb. 6—Charles W. Morse, the New York banker who recently was given his freedom by the federal authorities after serving two years in prison, is said to be able to travel and get around.

"Dear Sir and Madame: Mrs. Taft and I learn that next week you will celebrate your golden wedding. We are also informed that you, Mr. Thoma, are an invalid, but that you bear your burdens with patience and philosophy, and that you are looking forward with gratitude that you have been spared to enjoy the celebration of the fiftieth anniversary of a union which has been full of happiness.

"Mrs. Taft and I would like to congratulate you both, and to hope that many years of life together await you with the contentment that they will bring.

"Sincerely yours,

INVOLUNTARY SPEEDER
ON CYCLE FINED $10

SAN FRANCISCO, Feb. 6—Togo Hatton is the only man on record, so far as known, who was really glad to be arrested for violating a speed ordinance. He was so tickled that he offered to let the policeman pull him off his motorcycle, squad, who took him into custody Saturday evening.

Something was wrong with his cycle while he was spinning down Main street.

Hatton did his best to stop, but he could not. His hair fairly stood on end.

He let out a shout for help.

Hatton and Grandfield heard and saw Neil finally overtake Hatton and pulled him to a stop. Hatton looked over his shoulder and shouted "Pack!"

"Sorry me, I can't."

Hatton's constant pull put on his brakes and finally brought his cycle to a halt.

Then it was that Hatton expressed a desire to hug the policeman. The latter rested him for speeding. The whole matter was explained in court yesterday. The cyclist was fined $10.

J. W. King had no money with which to sit in a little game of poker, and so he demanded it of Marie S. It was money Mrs. King's former husband had given her for the support of her children, and she refused to let King have it. When King gave her a blow, she threatened to cut her throat from ear to ear with a razor, the wife testified.

SAN FRANCISCO, Feb. 6—An other evidence of their appreciation of his business ability and success is shown in the fact that they liked the recent action of Major Ralph in appointing him a member of the police commission, the owners and directors of the St. Francis hotel at noon yesterday gave Jim Woods a luncheon and a star, and presented him with a gold and diamond police star.

OAKLAND TRIBUNE EDITORIAL PAGE

M. C. CHAPMAN
President

Washington or Roosevelt—Which?

The San Diego Tribune says Congressman Slayback's resolution providing for a constitutional amendment to the effect that no President shall have more than one term, even if it should pass the House, would be no more than an expression of Democratic opinion.

Our contemporary is mistaken. A vast number of Republicans are firmly of the opinion that it would be unwise and unsafe to break down the precedent established by Washington and reaffirmed by Theodore Roosevelt. Slayback's resolution may be prompted by partisan considerations, and is obviously directed at Roosevelt, but his motive in no wise vitiates the principle his resolution asserts. It was originally asserted by Washington in a spirit of patriotic abnegation, and when Grant wanted a third term it was denied him because an immense body of Republicans refused their consent. Next to Washington, we can quote no better authority than Theodore Roosevelt as to the wisdom of observing the precedent against third terms. On the night of the election of 1904, Roosevelt issued the following statement:

"Executive Mansion, Washington, Nov. 8, 1904; 8:10 P. M.

"The President has just made public this formal statement:

"I am deeply sensible of the honor done me by the American people in thus expressing their confidence in what I have done and have tried to do. I appreciate to the full the solemn responsibility this confidence imposes upon me and I shall do all that in my power lies not to forfeit it. On the 4th of March next I shall have served three and a half years, and this three and a half years constitute my first term. The wise custom which limits the President to two terms regards the substance and not the form, and under NO CIRCUMSTANCES WILL I BE AGAIN A CANDIDATE FOR OR ACCEPT ANOTHER NOMINATION FOR PRESIDENT."

Roosevelt may have changed his mind, but he has not changed the principle. That principle was not handed down by a Democrat or to Democrats. The Father of His Country was a Federalist, and he voluntarily laid down the Presidency when he could have had a third term without making a struggle for it. The reasons he gave for declining a third term are as potent and conclusive as they were the day they were issued—even more so. They were not addressed merely to the contemporary generation, but to future generations. What Washington feared was that a third term would lead to a fourth and then to life, and finally to monarchy and a dynasty.

That Roosevelt has changed his mind is evident from his latest utterance respecting his attitude toward a third term. He says he is not a candidate, but refuses "to tie my hands by a statement which would make it difficult for me to serve the public by undertaking a great task, if the people as a whole seemed definitely to come to the conclusion that I ought to do that task." If a majority of the delegates to the Republican national convention can be induced to vote for him, Roosevelt will take that as a definite expression of the whole people. Roosevelt has long considered himself a majority of the people. His statements remind one of Napoleon's professions of fidelity to the republic at the very moment he was planning to overturn it and establish a despotic monarchy.

THE TRIBUNE does not wish the Republican party to set the example in breaking down the precedent set by Washington. It does not believe there is any reason for breaking the precedent, any legitimate excuse for an innovation that all parties since Washington's day have united in declaring to be dangerous to the peace and safety of the republic. It does not believe the nomination of Roosevelt is essential to Republican success in the coming campaign. It does not even believe Roosevelt can be elected, and does believe his nomination will bring disaster on the party and the country. Moreover, we greatly fear that the election of Roosevelt would be a greater disaster to the country and its institutions than a Republican defeat would be.

Roosevelt has shown himself to be of lawless temper and impudent of constitutional restraints. He wants Congress and the courts to obey his orders. He is extravagant and arbitrary, and his ambition is to make the United States a great military nation. He wants big fleets and big standing armies, and is opposed to international arbitration. Again, the love of power has caused him to repudiate the declaration he made in 1904 and to set himself against the example of Washington.

Apparently the District Attorney of San Mateo county has an idea that he can prove that John J. Moore lied in his dying statement. Then again, he may be only fishing for evidence that may be used against the widow in a civil action. In his dying statement Moore said he shot at Timothy three times before Timothy returned his fire. Mrs. Moore's maid and Timothy say the same thing, and the two pistols confirm the story told by the principals and the maid. But the District Attorney is not satisfied. He wants more evidence—of what kind and for what purpose may be easily imagined.

Personalities in the Pulpit.

At Bloomington, Ill., a clergyman denounced from his pulpit, and by name, three young men whose conduct had excited his displeasure. Subsequently the young men encountered him outside the church and gave him a drubbing. Knowing nothing of the facts beyond the statements contained in a brief telegram, we have no opinion to offer regarding the merits of the affair.

But the incident raises a question which has from time to time forced itself upon public attention. To what extent does a clergyman's cloth and calling relieve him from responsibility for what he says in public about others? Some clergymen—happily they are in a large minority—consider themselves privileged to say anything about anybody without being required to prove the truth of their assertions. They do not feel called upon to substantiate the accusations they make and regard it as an invasion of the rights and immunities of their holy calling to be called to account for what they say about individuals from the pulpit. They are notoriously careless in stating facts and are reckless in making statements respecting the good name of people who fall under the ban of their disapproval. Is this position justified? Does the law sanction it?

We recall that some years ago the pastor of a local church stood up before his congregation one Sunday morning and denounced one of the best judges that ever sat on the bench of this county in unmeasured terms, making specific allegations of the gravest character. The judge was not a member of the pastor's congregation or even of his sect, and he was assailed apropos of nothing in particular. When the pastor was shown that he had grossly maligned the judge, that the injurious accusations he made from the pulpit were untrue, and that the conclusions he drew from a false statement of facts were altogether wrong, did he publicly retract the scathing he had uttered? Not he. Privately he acknowledged his mistake and expressed regret for what he had said, but he refused to make the only possible reparation for the injustice he had done. He would not tell his congregation the truth, excusing his conduct by saying his motives were good and that a public retraction of his untruthful statements would tend to lower him in the eyes of his parishioners and injure his usefulness in the ministry. He said he had been misinformed, but declined to give the name of his informant.

The collapse of his boom appears to have prostrated Senator La Follette. The defection to Roosevelt on one side and Cummins raising his own standard on the other is certainly enough to dishearten any man, even if all the great Middle States were not getting into line for Taft.

Had that clergyman taken the trouble to make a personal inquiry half an hour's investigation would have shown him that the judge was guiltless of the charges brought against him. But the preacher took the unsupported word of an informant he would not name in a matter that not only affected the good name of a citizen of high standing, but the integrity of a judge on the bench. Without qualification he made accusations, which, if true, would have justified the judge's impeachment and removal from the bench. Yet when convinced of his mistake he would not make reparation, would not retract the false charges he had thundered from the pulpit.

The incident is typical. It illustrates a lack of moral responsibility that is displayed all too frequently; also a pretense of immunity to which there is no legitimate claim. Evil speaking is one of the sins the Bible especially enjoins against. Bearing false witness is expressly prohibited by the Ten Commandments. But too often it happens that men assume that wearing God's livery justifies them in slandering and defaming their neighbors. As long as they are denouncing sin they feel no compunction about libeling persons they hold up as concrete examples of iniquity. As a rule they make their charges without investigation and refuse to retract when shown that they have slandered and defamed innocent persons.

We cordially agree with this paragraph from the Stockton Mail:

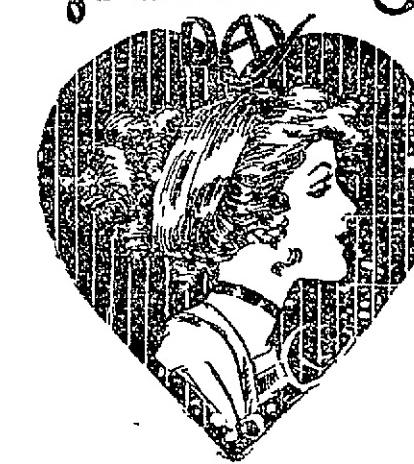

"George C. Fetterman is beseeching Acting Governor Wallace to pardon him. We hope Wallace will do no such thing. Fetterman was arrested for driving his automobile through a Los Angeles street at a speed of forty miles an hour. He was very justly sentenced to spend ten days in jail. A man who will drive a car at such speed along a street has no regard for human life; he is at once a fool and a selfish beast; and he ought to have a hundred days in jail instead of ten. It is useless to fine such a fellow. The money is nothing to him. Nothing but some personal punishment will deter a man of this stamp from such murderous and heartless acts. We sincerely trust that Governor Wallace will let this Fetterman go to jail, where he belongs."

Higher honors in life and canonization after death awaits the judge who will impose jail sentences on the auto speed maniacs who rush through streets and crowded highways at a reckless and unlawful gait, to the terror and peril of people going about their business in a quiet, orderly and lawful way. Small fines are no deterrent. A little jail fare and chain-gang exercise will effect a speedy and salutary reform. Let Fetterman serve his ten days, and make it twenty the next time he offends.

John R. McLean, owner of the Cincinnati Enquirer and the Washington Post, is after the scalp of Judson Harmon, which adds to the ruction in the Democratic camp. William J. Bryan is booming at Harmon in The Commoner and incidentally taking a few flings at Champ Clark, which makes the mix-up all the more entertaining. Bryan is supporting Wilson, who opposed him every time he ran for President, and antagonizing Clark, who supported him enthusiastically every time he ran.

The collapse of his boom appears to have prostrated Senator La Follette. The defection to Roosevelt on one side and Cummins raising his own standard on the other is certainly enough to dishearten any man, even if all the great Middle States were not getting into line for Taft.

Nation's Leaders on Floor at Annual Charity Ball in Washington.

WASHINGTON, Feb. 6.—The annual charity ball of the Southern Relief society, given at the New Willard, was the Mecca of society last night.

The turkey trot, danced by some daring younger guests, vied with the old-fashioned minuet, and both were applauded heartily. A buffet supper was served at midnight. Upward of 3000 persons attended the function.

The ball was given under the distinguished patronage of Mrs. Taft, Mrs. Champ Clark, Mrs. John Hays Hammond, Mrs. William Randolph Hearst, Mrs. John R. McLean, Mrs. E. B. McLean, Mrs. William F. Draper and about 100 other most notables, and proved one of the most enjoyable dancing events of the month.

The guests were presented to Miss Nannie Randolph Heth, president of the society; Mrs. John Hays Hammond and Mrs. Matthew T. Scott, stood at the receiving line by Colonel Robert E. Lee, grandson of the great Confederate leader.

WOMEN IN THE NEWS

ARTIST HEADS LIST OF BEAUTIES WITH HIS OWN WIFE

Charles Dana Gibson Declares He Hasn't Courage to Name the Rest.

NEW YORK, Feb. 6.—"Name the ten most beautiful women in the world? Impossible! I haven't the courage. And I have seen some of the best, too. Women, however, are all beautiful. There is one woman whom I know to be truly beautiful—and whom I do not feel worthy to name. Why? Mrs. Charles Dana Gibson, of course."

So said Charles Dana Gibson, the artist, when asked to name the ten women he believed to be the most beautiful in the world.

"I can't name the ten most beautiful," said Mr. Gibson. "It is beyond me to do such a thing. There are about 45,000,000 beautiful women in the world, and were I to select ten from them, I would probably choose the most beautiful, it would bring the remaining 44,999,990 down on me. Can you not picture what a calamity that would be?" and Mr. Gibson threw up his hands with an expression of horror.

ALL WOMEN ARE BEAUTIFUL.

"I can, however, name one whom I know to be beautiful. She is Mrs. Charles Dana Gibson. Why do I name her and no other? Simply because it puts me right at home." Also: "If I am in right at home I am as a consequence in right with all of the other 44,999,990 beautiful women in the world."

Mr. Gibson laughed heartily.

"Why, think of it," he said. "One of the ten may have been the woman who sat next to me in a horse car the other day, with a bundle wrapped around her, and a baby in her lap. She was beautiful; there was no doubt about that. Her clothes may not have been, but she was."

"On the other hand, one of the ten may have been the little old thing who opposite me in the subway the other night, squeezed between two stout gentlemen who were trying to monopolize three seats. She looked really beautiful when she cast them a scornful glance and swept from the car at her station."

"You may see beautiful women any place you go. On the street, at the theater, in the shops, in offices. In the home, in the tenement, anywhere."

How could one hope to select ten women and name them as the most beautiful?"

To Enter Vaudeville

NEW YORK, Feb. 6.—Sarah Bernhardt, the French actress, is to enter vaudeville here, according to a cable message received by Martin Beck, the manager of the Palace Theatre, this country.

Beck last night that, as a result of several weeks' negotiations, Miss Bernhardt had signed a contract to appear for forty weeks in this country under the exclusive management of Mr. Beck.

Mr. Beck, according to Mr. Beck's announcement, will be seen in a repertoire of the big scenes from many of her successes, including "Camillo," "Sane Gou," "Les Soeurs" and "Joan of Arc." She will also play a new one-act comedy, "The Girl," which is now being produced at the Palace.

Miss Anna Fostor will entertain about fifty friends at bridge at her Vernon Heights home on Wednesday.

INFORMAL RECEPTION.

On Saturday Mrs. Hugh Gallagher will give a card party and linen shower for Miss Edith Fern Snow, fiancee of Ralph Newcomb.

Miss Anna Fostor will entertain about fifty friends at bridge at her Vernon Heights home on Wednesday.

DINNER.

Miss Pussy Creed will give dinner on Friday night at the family home of the Creeds on Vernon Heights. Afterward the guests will attend the Friday Night Club. The complimented guest is to be Miss Margaret Moore.

Among the guests are Mr. and Mrs. Langstroth, Miss Ernestine McNer, Miss Gladys Wilson, Miss Josephine Johnson, Miss Margaret Moore, Jack Neville, Dean Witter, Spencer Kates, Frank Kales, Willard Clegg, Franklin Bangs.

IN SAN FRANCISCO.

Tomorrow a large number of Oaklanders will cross the bay to attend the bridge party to be given by Mrs. Winston Henry Ober in her handsome San Francisco home.

MISS SUE HARROLD ENTERTAINED.

Miss Sue Harrold is being given a round of social compliments. Her bridal party includes Mrs. Frederick Farnum as matron of honor and Miss Madeline Clay maid of honor. The bridesmaids will number Miss Gladys Wilson, Miss Harriet Stone, Miss Marie McHenry and Miss Emily Harrold. Van Stieken will be attended by Frank Kales as best man.

Miss Harriet Stone will give a dinner Saturday night at the Claremont Country Club in honor of Miss Harrold and her fiance asking the members of the bridal party and a few close friends. The following Saturday night Miss Myra Hall will give a dinner in Miss Harrold's honor. A Valentine's day bridge party has been planned by Mrs. Lorraine Langstroth, formerly Miss Sue Hall, in compliment to the same bride elect.

Women to Aid

SPOKANE, Wash., Feb. 6.—Seven women will be appointed deputies by Glenn R. Creighton, assessor of Spokane county, who declares he expects these assistants to make a clean-up of property hitherto unrevealed. He gives no reason why the women are women police officers, policemen and clerks, though should not be women assessors, and will assign them to the sections where the more wealthy live so they can get on the tax rolls at proper value than the diamonds and other jewelry, ladies' hats and expensive frippery of their sisters.

That these have been overlooked in large part by the male assessors seems to be the reason for the appointment, as deputies who begin work March 1 for one month are Mrs. H. F. Golden, Mrs. Mary Welsh, Mrs. Delta B. Herschfield, Mrs. Margaret Plough, Mrs. Vanness and Mrs. Margaret McKeon.

No Count for Her

LONDON, Feb. 6.—Mrs. Ava Willing Astor yesterday denied the rumor that she is engaged to the famous Austrian diplomat. In a letter addressed to a correspondent regarding these rumors, her secretary says:

"Mrs. Astor asks me to state that any report of the kind you mention is absolutely untrue, also that she hardly knows the gentleman mentioned. Such reports cause Mrs. Astor very great annoyance."

Mrs. Astor is living at the Hitz hotel, preparatory to opening her town house.

Mrs. Leeds May Wed

LONDON, Feb. 6.—It was learned yesterday that Lord Falconer, who is rumored to be engaged to marry Mrs. W. G. Leeds, is a guest aboard her yacht, the "Antares," which he brought from London and is now cruising in the Far East, with a gay party aboard, including the Duke and Duchess of Westminister. The son of Kintore, Lord Falconer's father, is not in London at present, but it is reported that he has offered odds of 2 to 1 that his son would capture the American heiress, before the end of the present cruise.

Inherited Beauty

By LILLIAN RUSSELL

HE most charming chapter written on the subject of woman's beauty is written by Richard Jeffery, the English naturalist. This quotation speaks for his high quality of taste: "It takes a hundred and fifty years to make a beauty, a hundred and fifty years out of doors. Open air, hard manual labor or continuous exercise, good food, good clothing, some degree of comfort. All of these, but most especially open air, must play their part for five generations before a beautiful woman can appear."

He traces the descent of such a woman for a hundred and fifty years. The immense strength and agility of the yeoman gained by hard work, but plentiful fare and athletic sports, married to a woman as strong. For gentle women in early days were used to work from childhood. He says: "Ever since I recollect the work done by ladies in country houses was something astonishing. Ladies, by right of well-to-do parents, by right of education, and manners. Really it seems that there is no work a woman cannot do with the best results for herself; always provided it does not throw a strain upon the loins. Healthy children sprung from such parents tend toward a refinement of the features. In the fifth generation beauty appears, with the features so molded and softened by time, so worked and refined and sweetened, so delicate, yet so rich, in blood, that she seems like a new creation that has suddenly started into being. The fisherman's daughter e'er now has reached high in the scale of beauty. Hardlihood is the fisherman's talent. The wind washed by the sea enriches his blood, he is tribal in his ways, his settlements are almost exclusive and his descent pure."

"Here are the same constant factors—the stationary housekeeping, the family intact, the outdoor life, the air, the sea, the sun. The passion of beauty is almost sad in its intense abstraction. She walks in the glory of young life; she is really centuries old."

This work has been all done for us; ours is the duty to continue on the old-fashioned and ever new principle of right living to perpetuate beauty. Mothers of the race must demand the conditions of health and beauty for their children. Societies should be formed for social purity. No children should marry unless in perfect health. "Damaged goods" should not be accepted by parents for their children any more than they would accept damaged articles of food and clothing.

The hundred and fifty years of American civilization (I am counting from the days of George Washington) have been a hundred and fifty years of beauty making—mechanical, physical and spiritual. We are now at the height of our perfection; we must keep there and not retrograde. But to do so the greatest care must be taken of the race to retain command and demand purity of breeding. Remember, your model is complete; make your work equal to it.

BLONDE.—To keep the hair light it should be washed at least every two weeks. Be sure to rinse all the soap out of it, for there is nothing that will spot the golden glints as soap if it is allowed to remain. A tablespoonful of peroxide of hydrogen added to the last rinsing water will help to keep the hair light. Only do this once a month. I shall be happy to send you the formula for a shampoo for blonde hair upon receipt of a self-addressed stamped envelope.

BERTHIA.—For the warts on your hand, have your druggist put up one dram salicylic acid and one ounce of collodion in a small bottle with a brush run through the cork. Apply this a couple of times a day, but be exceedingly careful not to get any of it on the surrounding skin. A grain of table salt is also good. Moisten the warts with water and apply the salt, rubbing it in the warts. Do this several times a day.

F. K. N.—If you will send me a self-addressed stamped envelope, I will send you a formula for eradicating blackheads. No, cocoa butter will not take out the blackheads.

MOST STYLISH AND COMFORTABLE Nemo CORSETS

STYLE: If you are in doubt as to the perfect STYLE of Nemo Corsets, just remember that the most fashionable store in PARIS is selling as many Nemos as the largest stores in this country; and that many of the leading Parisian corsetieres are now doing their best to produce corsets "like" or "just as good as" the Nemo.

COMFORT: Lastikops Webbing, an important Nemo invention, insures a much greater degree of comfort, especially in the stylish long models, than is possible in any other make.

WEAR: The very best materials, plus Nemo special machinery and rigid inspections, give Nemos twice the "life" of any other corsets.

OAKLAND WHEELMEN TO PRESENT RATTLING MIDDLEWEIGHTS

Otto Berg and Fritz Holland Matched for 10-Round Contest Feb. 13.

Otto Berg, a middleweight from the northwest, who comes highly recommended by those experts of the boxing game, Pete and Jack Grant, will be one of the big liners at the show of the Oakland Wheelmen at Piedmont pavilion, February 13. Fritz Holland will be his opponent. This match was scheduled to take place on February 12, but when Matchmaker Morton was advised that the police had stopped the sale of tickets for their annual ball on that night he consented to put the date forward two days.

Yesterday afternoon the northwestern donned the gym outfit at Al White's place at Golden Gate and while it was fine for boxing practice, the time zone left a favorable impression upon Jack Perkins, Jim Buckley, Al White and a bunch of ring followers who were present.

That Berg is a strong boxer, willing boy is evident from the manner in which he has been working. There is nothing of the roughness about him, nor does he tell how he is going to kill his opponent, as did Knockout George Brown, who trained awhile at White's. Berg is a quiet, unassuming fellow and says little or nothing, but just drills and drills all the time.

Yesterday his manager, F. M. Hamlin, sent Big Gunboat Smith after the northwestern and although the "gunboat" outweighed Berg twenty pounds the middleweight made his debut, interesting for the heavyweight. Al White, Buckley and Perkins told the "gunboat" to give the middleweight a thorough tryout and Berg right away took off with it. It lasted and if the first day's work of the northwestern means anything Berg will give Holland a merry time if the fans will see a rattling good boxing match next Tuesday evening.

DAVENPORT WILL DEFEND TITLE AS 1/4-MILE CHAMP.

The event is intended to take on the aspect of an American championship race.

VARSITY TRACKMEN WILL HOLD RALLY TOMORROW

UNIVERSITY OF CALIFORNIA, Feb. 6.—A rally of track men is to be held in room 101, California hall, tomorrow afternoon at 4 o'clock, when students interested in oval or field work will be given an opportunity to sign up. Captain Kretzman of this year's track team has called the meeting, at which there will be several speakers.

The oval will be ready tonight, after a week of repair work. The last of the forty cubic yards of cinders are being put up today.

DETROIT TIGERS HAVE 11 PITCHERS SIGNED

DETROIT, Mich., Feb. 6.—The Detroit Americans have received the signed contracts of Pitcher "Tex" Covington and Outfielder Henry Perry. Covington was the slavering pitcher to sign.

"It was just here that the brittleness that brought down the wrath of the public came in, for often theights were prolonged until both men were about ready to drop. I believe a happy medium would be about a six or seven round bout, and this is an assurance that when boxers would be given a chance to display some science."

"Tommy Ryan, for several years the middleweight champion of the world, and by far the greatest fighter in the history of the middleweight title also, has greatly changed the general style of fighting, and the only bad feature is that now there is a tendency to make many of the fights mere slugfests. In this respect the fighters today are better than they were years ago. Now a crowd has to see the action, and for a round or two and they insist on the fighters mixing it all the time, while under the old fashioned fight system the fighters depended on science to keep them in the running until a real opportunity for a knockout.

"It was just here that the brittleness that brought down the wrath of the public came in, for often theights were prolonged until both men were about ready to drop. I believe a happy medium would be about a six or seven round bout, and this is an assurance that when boxers would be given a chance to display some science."

"Tommy Ryan, for several years the middleweight champion of the world, and by far the greatest fighter in the history of the middleweight title also, has greatly changed the general style of fighting, and the only bad feature is that now there is a tendency to make many of the fights mere slugfests. In this respect the fighters today are better than they were years ago. Now a crowd has to see the action, and for a round or two and they insist on the fighters mixing it all the time, while under the old fashioned fight system the fighters depended on science to keep them in the running until a real opportunity for a knockout.

BLUMENBERG AGAIN PLACED ON GRILL MOOSE OFFICIAL PRAISES OAKLAND

Lorimer Committee Seeks to Find Reason for Remarkable Outburst.

Supreme Dictator Arthur H.
Jones Is Guest of Local Lodge Members.

"Oakland is one of the most beautiful cities I have seen anywhere in the United States," declared Arthur H. Jones, supreme dictator of the Loyal Order of Moose, who was yesterday afternoon invited to the honored guest of the Lodge No. 224, "I have been back and forth across the continent three times since I became supreme dictator; and Captain Ignatius Holland, a student at the University of California, an only son of Captain Ignatius Holland, a retired sailor and captain of this city, and formerly one of the most prominent members of the San Francisco bar.

Young Holland died on February 6, following an operation for appendicitis, on January 1, of this year, his mother followed him to the grave, having recovered from the sorrow caused by his death.

"Young Holland was a few miles out from Eureka, she sighted the steam schooner Katherine, in charge of Captain Self, also out from Eureka for this port, listing to the starboard. Upon speaking the inquiry it was found that she had discharged several hours earlier while crossing the bar which caused her lumber cargo to shift to the starboard. She was in a perilous position and the steam schooners Yellowstone and Katherine came to the assistance of Katherine. The Katherine lost nearly 50,000 feet of lumber, her deck fastenings having parted when she listed.

The Oakland Launch and Tugboat Company's tug Panama laid the launch Nepart up on the mud this morning.

A fire drill at Long wharf this morning proved a great success. The giant salt water plant, under the guiding hand of Captain Olsen, soon had the steam gauge at a high mark and long streams of water shot out from both nine into the bay.

After discharging 1700 poles at Long wharf, the steam schooner Jim Butler, Captain Olson, left Everett steaming from this side to San Francisco.

The steam schooner Scota, Captain Justen, from Alton, is at Long wharf.

The steam schooner Cole, is bound to be the most up-to-date vessel of its class on the river, ran up the stream this morning and discharged a small quantity of freight in East Oakland.

After discharging freight at the Oakland Dock, the Wardhouse Company's wharf, the river steamer St. Helena left for San Francisco.

Vessels discharging lumber at the Hoggar Number Company's wharf yesterday afternoon included the Holden, Eighth and Grove streets.

After discharging lumber up the stream the steam schooner South Coast left San Francisco this morning. She discharged a portion of her cargo at Do Premer wharf and will leave the remainder on the San Francisco side.

COMPANY IS HELD FOR AGENT'S ACTION

KANSAS CITY, Mo., Feb. 6.—William A. Reid, a farmer, was knocked down by a depot agent with whom he was transacting business at Grand Pass, Mo. A jury awarded him $1500 damages against the railway company. Judge E. J. Broadbush, of the Kansas City court of appeals, upheld the verdict today, deciding that the company was responsible for the actions of the agent toward the men with whom he was transacting business for the company.

Price vs. Good Dentistry

Too Few Show the Discrimination Necessary in Dentistry

PRICE as a rule is the first consideration on the part of the patient who finds it necessary to have his teeth attended to, for it is the needed expenditure that the patient's judgment is based upon in choosing the institution in which they look for treatment. And, withal, they want and MUST HAVE the best treatment.

Can be had, and for a reasonable outlay, if you show the necessary discrimination, for this profession, like most business firms, can adjust their prices to the volume of business transacted.

We are the largest and oldest established Dentists in Oakland, and our great volume of business warrants the most liberal PRICE CONCESSIONS that GOOD dentistry permits.

KING'S DAUGHTERS ABANDON PROJECT

Funds Are Not Available With Which to Purchase Land Adjoining.

It was with great regret that the King's Daughters, who are carrying on the work of the Home for Incurables, decided at the meeting held January 31, 1912, that they would have to give up the plan of securing the property which adjoins the grounds on the south.

The world is having grown so marvelously many friends suggested that this land be secured before the new building is erected. The members have had this matter under consideration for over two years, and were unable to secure the price necessary to pay for the land as the money pledged during the campaign cannot be used except for that which it was promised.

At the same meeting action was also taken on the bequest of $5000, which was given to the "Home" by T. L. Barker, that this money be placed in a fund, known as the "T. L. Barker Endowment Fund," instead of the same to be used as funds for a male patient unable to pay for himself.

At the convention held by the King's Daughters in 1911, it was voted that all the members of the order give $100 monthly enough to pay for a bed to be in the Home for Incurables, to be occupied by the name of the founder and first president of the Order of the King's Daughters. "The Margaret Bottoms free bed." At the meeting held last Wednesday, it was voted that the bed occupied by the woman gift will be destitute.

The directors of the Home which is a benevolent institution, appreciate this resistance very much, as they are being constantly called upon to help the poor and needy who are never turned away.

MOONLIGHT PURITY SQUAD AT WORK

Spooning to Be Discouraged
by Police in Washington City.

SPOKANE, Wash., Feb. 6.—The "moonlight purity squad" was sworn in today. This means that "spooners" on the boulevards and in the parks of Spokane will have to be extremely cautious, or be haled into court. The equipment of the members of the "purity squad" consists of gumshoes and searchlights furnished by the officers.

The duty of the "purity cop" is to roam around the shady places in parks where young people are apt to congregate in the long evenings of the summer and to discourage love-making.

The twelve members of the squad are officially listed as members of the park commission force.

PROPOSED THIRD TERM LAW REGARDED LIGHTLY

WASHINGTON, Feb. 6.—California Congressmen are not worrying about the Snyden resolution, which, if passed by Congress, would be a national expression that no man ought to run for President for a third term.

"I would not vote for any man for a third term," Representative Hayes said; "but I do not term Roosevelt as being in a class affected by such a resolution. He has been a candidate only once. Not that I think Roosevelt will be the next nominee. President Taft will be renominated. Roosevelt is doing Taft the best favor by pursuing his present course. I should vote for such a resolution if it is properly worded."

"I am not worried about a third term where a term intervenes between a candidate's term and the nomination," Representative Stephens said. "I am not in favor of the Snyden resolution. If the American people desire to nominate a man, they should be allowed to do so."

Others of the delegation expressed themselves as not taking it seriously.

TIPPING BRANDED AS ILLEGAL IN CHICAGO

CHICAGO, Feb. 6.—Tipping was branded as illegal and un-American by Judge Bretnano yesterday. Partners in a corporation which bought the "tip concession" from hotels and cafes were in the Circuit Court for the second time within a few months quarreling over a division of the profits. For the second time they heard themselves called violators of the law. They supplied cards with attendants, whose uniforms contained no pockets and all gratuities were turned in to the promoters.

Stubborn Colds May Lead to Consumption

Did you ever have a cold that would not go? a cough that persisted, that prevented sleep and made walking hours miserable? Eckman's Alternative is the proper remedy in such cases. Perhaps some simple medicine may be effective where it is only a tickle in the nose, but when your cold is bad and simple remedies don't answer—then take Eckman's Alternative. Neglect often leads to more serious trouble; a case in point follows:

"718 Cherry street, Philadelphia, Pa.—Gentlemen: In July, 1909, I first noticed the condition of my son, John C. Sumption. I lost weight rapidly; had a hollow cough, hemorrhages and very severe night sweats. My brother recommended Eckman's Alternative. In the Fall of 1909 I began to take it. At this time I am perfectly well and robust again, and have gained weight and now weigh from 110 to 140 pounds. Not a trace of my old trouble remains. I will gladly express the merits of this medicine to anyone."

(Signed) M. L. GERHARDT,

Eckman's Alternative, Hay Fever, Throat and Lung Troubles, and in upholding the system. Does not contain poisons, opiates or habit-forming drugs.
